

House Resolution No. 1080

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably contribute an exceptional amount of time and energy to helping students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Rebecca Stuart of Wildwood, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a teacher at Geggie Elementary School in the Rockwood R-VI School District of Saint Louis County; and

Whereas, Rebecca Stuart recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she was named Teacher of the Year at Geggie Elementary School in light of her unparalleled dedication and professionalism; and

Whereas, Rebecca Stuart has developed and maintained an excellent reputation as a classroom teacher who makes sure that the needs of each and every student are met by differentiating and accelerating when needed; and

Whereas, in addition to her classroom duties, Rebecca Stuart has helped ensure the highest standards of conduct and performance at Geggie Elementary School through her participation and leadership with the Rockwood School District's Professional Development Committee and on such Geggie Elementary School committees as the Professional Development Committee, Math Vertical Team, and Building Leadership Team; and

Whereas, Rebecca Stuart is justifiably proud also to be known as the beloved wife of Robert Stuart and the loving mother of Grace Stuart and Tori Stuart; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative activities in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri citizens as Rebecca Stuart at momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Rebecca Stuart as Teacher of the Year by her colleagues at Geggie Elementary School and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Rebecca Stuart of Wildwood, Missouri.
